INDIAN TRIBES DEMAND ACTION

Renewal of Suggestion That Another Territory Be Founded.

CONSOLIDATION IS DESIRED

Think Maintenance of Larger Communities Would Be Beneficial to Them.

The suggestion that another Indian Territory should be founded for Indian tribes or bands now scattered about some sixty reservations all over the country has recently been renewed. The experiment of the first Indian Territory was an utter failure, and Commissioner Leupp declares the lesson will not be forgotten. Yet the Indians themselves in many cases desire more consolidation of their interests and numbers, illustrate this situation. These Indians had their lands parceled in severalty and their reserve opened a year ago. The White River band objected to the end. Being overruled they objected to their allotments and have been making trouble ever since. They received eighty acres per capita besides common rights to a great area of grazing lands. Now they want to be moved away to Pine Ridge reservation, South Dakota, and in fact, having been denied that privilege by the department, they did actually bundle up their possessions, load their wives and children on carts, and start across the country to Pine Ridge. Warned that they would not be per-mitted to go there, they withdrew for a pow wow and consultation, the conclusion of which is not yet announced to the Indian office here.

LOCAL BANK ACCOUNT OF SAGE ATTACHED

An echo of the failure of M. J. Sage & Co., "brokers," of New York, on Wednesday last, was heard in Washington yesterday when Benjamin P. Snyder & Co., the local correspondents filed proceedings in the local court against them to secure $1,800. To accomplish this purpose, through its counsel, Archer & Smith. Snyder & Co. caused an attachment to issue against the National Metropolitan Bank of this city, where, it is believed, Sage & Co. have an account, with assets sufficient to meet the demand of the plaintiff.

It is contended by the plaintiff that the amount named is due it by Gage & Co. for money advanced between August 25, 1905, and the 25th inst.

Whether the government will profit in the end through Banderas' death is doubtful. The report has been industriously circulated among the negroes that he was not killed in battle, but after being captured was disposed of in a small but to which he was taken. As a result many negroes have left here to join the insurgent forces. In Santa Clara province the first engagement has resulted in a victory for the loyalists. The lay of the land is such that by a roundabout march Guerra, after a short advance toward Guanes could return and approach within two miles of Pinar Del Rio without being discovered. Eight hours would suffice for him to make this march.

Moreover, if he really has gone to Guanes, Guerra will be the galner, as his forces are constantly augmented by the recruiting of men the further he marches. If Pinar Del Rio city is to be attacked by the insurgents, the next twelve hours will probably tell the story.

The only fighting reported this morning is a skirmish at Guines between a squad of Destrampes' men and a rebel force under Colonel Asbert. The government troops were ambushed and lost several wounded. The fact that the fight was near Guines gave rise to a report that a battle was fought with Guerra's force at Guines.
